

ASSESSMENT METHOD	ASSESSMENT CRITERIA
Individual presentation paper (all learning outcomes)	Assessment criterion of individual presentation papers  Each student will write an individual presentation paper, which have to be presented during lectures. The student have to be able to answer to additional questions from the lecturer, but also from other students  This work is a prerequisite for the examination.  In the assessment the following criteria are evaluated: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• how thoroughly the topic has been elaborated</li> <li>• use of appropriate sources</li> <li>• answers to additional questions</li> </ul>
Lab assignments (practical outcome)	Assessment criteria for lab assignments.  Each student is given five individual assignments.  Lab work is given a passing grade if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– the assignment is done correctly (everything is working properly)</li> <li>– the student is able to answer any additional questions</li> <li>– the lab has been done and reported in time</li> </ul> The results of the lab assignments are presented in the oral form.  The lab assignments must have a passing grade in order for the student to be able to take the exam.
Written exam (all outcomes)	Assessment criteria for written exam.  The exam is written. Each student is given an individual set of questions. The set contains 10 questions concerning different topics. Each question gives a a maximum of 10 points.  It is possible to earn maximum 100 points for the exam.  After the initial grades are given the students have a right to continue exam orally, to explain his or her solutions and answers as well as answer any additional questions the professor might have. The final grade after the additional oral exam can be higher as well as lower than the initial grade for the written exam.  The grades given for the exam are as follows: „0“ - less than 51 points  „1“ - 51-60 points  „2“ - 61-70 points  „3“ - 71-80 points  „4“ - 81-90 points  „5“ - 91 and more points
PREREQUISITES FOR FINAL ASSESSMENT (EXAMINATION)	Passing grades for the presentation paper, tests and lab assignments