

Assessment method: Written test (evaluates all outcomes)

Assessment criteria – “Passed” - Properties of equipment are minimum described. Problems are at least partially solved and conclusions can be less than partially absent. A student can make few mistakes in definitions of the basic concepts.

Assessment method: Homework

Assessment criteria – “Passed” - Correctly solved and accurately drawn up an individual problem. Presentation is given and defended.

Assessment method: Practical laboratory works execution

Assessment criteria – “Passed” - A student has performed the basic part of the work. Conclusions of experiment results are presented.

Final pass formation: All methods of assessment are passed.