

EPX5010 Construction Economics and Introduction to Entrepreneurship

Assessment criteria

Grading methods	Written test
Grading criteria	Results of the course: student knows the essence and special features of the construction enterprise, is able to draw up the mission and strategy of the firm. Knows forms of construction enterprise and application possibilities. Knows financial planning and estimation and is able to build up business plan and also solve exercises of the cash flow and financial statement of the construction firm. Knows regulations and is able to make proposals to solve financial problems of the contractor. 0 Does not draw up business plan and cannot solve exercises correctly. 1 Exercises not correctly solved. Poor business plan. 2 Basic criteria Knows basic principles of the exercises, knows relevant basic terminology and regulations and understands the building entrepreneurship which is evident in the business plan. 3 Knows theory and solves correctly exercises. Draws up the business plan. 4 Solves correctly exercises. Participate in the bidding seminar. Draw s up excellent business plan. 5 Exercises correctly solved and the student draws up excellent and reliable business plan.
Allowance to grading	4 written tests ans essey
Forming the final grade	Tests a 20 points, essey 20 points.