

ITE4330 Teamwork Project

EVALUATION METHOD	EVALUATION CRITERIA
Assessment	Non-distinctive evaluation The final evaluation is based on the “pass” or “fail” principle. Therefore as the focus of the course is on team-projects and team-work, the participant, being a team member, has to complete all the assignments given for the team to pass the course. The team will not pass the course if they have not completed or presented their assignments on time and does not meet the requirements given prior to the assignment.
Independent work	Team-projects and team-work
PRE-REQUISITES FOR ASSESSMENT	All assignments given must be completed. The team will not pass the course if they have not completed or presented their assignments on time and does not meet the requirements given prior to the assignment.
