

During the semester, two homework assignments are given to each student. Both assignments can yield up to 12.5 points, thus the maximum score from homework is 25 points. During the exam, three tasks are given to each student, with each task yielding up to 25 points and the whole exam up to 75 points. The final grade for a student is derived from his/her personal score:

- score  $> 90$  -- grade 5 (excellent)
- $80 < \text{score} \leq 90$  -- grade 4 (very good)
- $70 < \text{score} \leq 80$  -- grade 3 (good)
- $60 < \text{score} \leq 70$  -- grade 2 (satisfactory)
- $50 < \text{score} \leq 60$  -- grade 1 (pass)
- score  $\leq 50$  -- a student has failed to pass
