

ICM0029 PracticeEVALUATION

ASSESSMENT METHOD	ASSESSMENT CRITERIA
The assessment of the supervisor	The assessment of the supervisor is positive. The assessment of the supervisor is signed by the supervisor.
Evaluation of the internship report.	The student has presented on time an internship report that is in compliance of the requirements.
The defence of the internship report before the defence committee (if by assessor's decision the report should be additionally defended before the defence committee).	The student has successfully defended the internship report in accordance to the learning outcomes.
LEARNING OUTCOME	THRESHOLD
Student chooses and implements relevant practices and methods while carrying out work assignments and if necessary finds relevant additional information	The chosen practices and methods are suitable to carry out the given assignments and the amount of necessary additional information is sufficient to carry out the assignments successfully.
Student analyses the lessons learned during the internship experience in regards to his/her professional competences and goals.	The evaluation of the internship experience in regards to the professional competences and goals of the student.
Student associates studies with work experience.	The most common similarities and differences between studies and work-based experience have been identified.
Student is able to work both individually and as a team member, has a permissive attitude towards the diversity of values and attitudes.	The ability to work individually and as a team member is sufficient to carry out the assignments related to practice.
The student is able to create the enterprise internship report.	The structure of the report is logical and includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the description of the internship organisation and position; - the description of the main tasks completed during the internship and a more detailed analysis of 1 task; - the analysis of the performance; - the analysis of the competences; - an evaluation of the internship experience. The report corresponds to the requirements of the Author guidelines and formatting requirements for thesis Preparation in School of Information Technologies (exception: author's declaration and annotation are not required). The report corresponds to the requirements of the volume of the document.
The student is able to defend the enterprise internship report (if by assessor's decision the report should be additionally defended before the defence committee).	The presentation by the student and the visual presentation material is sufficiently informative and accurate. The student highlights the results of the internship in the presentation, and answers any additional questions satisfactorily.